LearnLaw™

The LearnLaw™ program introduces legal terminology, case analysis, reasoning and issue spotting. The program focus is on the fundamental, substantive law that will allow that facilitates the applied skills of extracting facts, applying rules of law, and understanding legal reasoning. LearnLaw introduces what to expect in law school, and the methodology to quickly master the rules of law and be successful in the study of law. The LearnLaw approach emphasizes the “black letter law” approach and introduces the Socratic method. The LearnLaw™ program consists of six modules that introduce the major concepts of the law--contracts, torts, criminal law, constitutional law, real property and civil procedure.

Courses:

Contracts: This module examines the fundamental elements of a contract: offer, acceptance and consideration.

Torts: The law of torts pertains to injuries against one’s person or property. The elements of individual torts, such as intentional torts and negligence are covered in this module.

Real Property: This module focuses on law school real property issues such as estates in land, future interests, easements, covenants running with the land, concurrent ownership, transference of land and the Recording system.

Criminal Law and Procedure: This module examines the elements and classification of crimes and focuses on the handling and disposition of criminal cases from a law school perspective.

Civil Procedure: An introduction to the Code of Civil Procedure (litigation at the Federal level) including jurisdiction, venue, parties and claims, joinder, motions, interpleader, and intervention are explored in this module.

Constitutional Law: This module examines the United States Constitution, its development and importance in all aspects of judicial decisions.
